JAPS WILL STARVE OUT THE RUSSIANS

Have About Abandoned Hope of Capturing Port Arthur.

Rome, Nov. 28.—(Glendale Di Roma has a dispatch from Tokio reporting that the general attack on the Port Arthur fortifications which began Saturday was but partially successful. The forts San Juan Eastoplung and Maimokubajama were destroyed, but the Japanese attacks on the Shin Shan and Keek Waa forts were repulsed. The total Japanese loss is reported at nearly 7,000. The correspondent adds that it is possible the attack will not be renewed, but the Japanese will continue to besiege the town until the Russians are forced to capitulate by a lack of food.

350 Carloads of Stores Missing.
Moscow, Nov. 28.—People arriving from the far east tell a remarkable story of the mysterious disappearance from the trunk line of three hundred and fifty car loads of stores and warm clothing belonging to private consignees and offices.

Torpedo Boat Destroyers Pass.
Beau, France, Nov. 28.—Three Russian torpedo boat destroyers passed here this morning and the fourth destroyer is now anchored in the cove.

Will Sacrifice All.
Tokio, Nov. 28.—Discussing war, domestic, financial and political conditions of Japan on the eve of the assembling of the diet, Premier Kataura said:
"We are prepared to sacrifice our last man and our last cent for this war."

Domestic conditions of Japan are highly satisfactory. At this session of the diet the government will be compelled to present a budget calling for $385,000,000, and the indications are that it will be passed without the slightest difficulty. This happy phenomenon is attributed to the characteristics of our people.

Japanese Attempt Failed.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—The Japanese attempt to burn Gen. Kuropatkin's left, as reported by Gen. Kuropatkin, has failed, according to a dispatch from Mukden.

Russia Repulsed Japs.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—General Kuropatkin telegraphs a description of the Japanese attack on November 21 against the Russian detachment near Kinkhetchen (Yensienten) on the front of the left flank. "The fighting," General Kuropatkin says, "was fierce, almost amounting to a bayonet engagement, but the enemy was everywhere repulsed and suffered severely."

"The attack was renewed the following morning, the Japanese having been reinforced, but again repulsed, and at four o'clock in the afternoon a blizzard and fog greatly hindered artillery fire. The Japanese continued to advance under cover of the fog, but our forces held their positions and the firing subsequently slackened. The Russian losses were nine killed and fifty-seven wounded."

"On November 25 the Japanese resumed the offensive and endeavored to develop our flank while advancing against our center."

"I have received no later reports. Gen. Kuropatkin also describes the bayoneting of twenty Japanese belonging to the patrol during the reconnaissance the night of November 25."

Japs Repulsed Russians.
Tokio, Nov. 28.—Manchurian head quarters, reporting today says:
"From the night of Nov. 25 until the morning of Nov. 26, a body of the enemy's infantry attacked our troops in the vicinity of Sintugun and Chataou, but the attack was completely repulsed by us."

"The enemy's artillery posted to the east of Ta mountain vigorously shelled the vicinity of Machautz, and Kuchiatzu from two o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 26, but we suffered no damage."

"On the right bank of the Hun river a body of the enemy's cavalry attacked Manchukies on Nov. 25, but were driven back by our forces."

"On Nov. 24 the enemy set fire to Changtsalmen and most of the village was burned."

Five Froze to Death.
Rome, Nov. 28.—A message from Tokio says that bitter cold prevails throughout Manchuria. The cold is intense about the Shakh river, where the armies of Gen. Oyama and Kuropatkin face each other, and five of General Kuropatkin's sentinels were frozen to death at their posts.

Japanese Diet Opens.
Tokio, Nov. 28.—The diet assembled today but adjourned soon after notice was sent to the cabinet that the house was organized. The session will be formally opened tomorrow by the mikado with a speech from the throne.

Victory Assured.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—The ministry of marine has published a table representing that Russia's naval strength in the far east as 48 vessels, including the Baltic fleet. The Japanese strength is placed at 25 vessels and the statement adds that victory is consequently assured.

Russians Discouraged.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 28.—Reports of the Russian commissariat department, which have been published, have spread discontent. The new method of preserving meat has met with disapproval, is inefficient, and the meat becomes rotten. The soldiers refused to touch the meat and thousands of pounds were wasted.

GOES TO MEMPHIS

Mr. Bransford Clarke to Leave Paducah.

Will Have One of the Largest Commissions in the South.

Mr. Bransford Clark has sold his commission business to David M. Flournoy and Joe Exall, and will leave for Memphis in a few days to engage in a similar business under the firm name of the Clarke Commission company. This will come as news to Mr. Clarke's Paducah friends, whom he numbers by the score. It has been known to some of them for some days, but as the final details and essential arrangements were not consummated until Saturday the announcement had not been made public. Mr. Clarke will be associated in the new firm with Treichlinger and Stearns, of St. Louis, the largest commission house in the west.

By this deal Paducah loses one of its most energetic, popular, progressive and successful business men. Coming to Paducah only seven years ago, Mr. Clark first engaged in the bicycle business. Seeing a good opening in the commission business he embarked in it in a few months and today has one of the largest commission businesses in the south and his firm is known as one of the greatest hustlers in the trade.

Mr. Clarke will move his family to the Huff City the first of the year.

INHALED GAS

And Three Will Die as a Result of Poisonous Fumes.

Huffalo, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Wm. Laureman is dead and Chas. Casper and Frank Evans are dying, as a result of inhaling natural gas in the Annex of the St. Francis home. Gas escaped from a stove imperfectly constructed.

NAN PATTERSON

Will Get Brand New Trial—Juror III.

New York, Nov. 28.—The jury in the case of Nan Patterson, the actress charged with the murder of Caesar Young was discharged today on account of the serious illness of Juror Dressler. A call was issued for a new panel for a new trial, which will commence Dec. 5.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—A sewer caved in at Kings Highway and Arsenal street today, burying a gang of twelve laborers. It is believed that twelve men were killed. Two dead bodies have been taken out by firemen.

MIGHTY FINE TIME ENJOYED AT CAIRO

Capt. S. A. Fowler and Mark Cole Returned Yesterday.

Silver Service Presented to Chairman of the Cairo Delegation.

CAPT. FOWLER MADE SPEECH

Capt. Saunders A. Fowler and Mark Cole, who were on the Paducah delegation to Huntington, W. Va., to attend the waterways convention, went to Cairo Saturday night to attend a love feast held there by the delegation from Cairo. The Paducah delegation was invited because Paducah and Cairo are "chums" and they went to the convention together and liked one another.

The banquet was at the Halfway House, and was most delightful. Covers were laid for thirty, and Col. Geo. Parsons, who was chairman of the Cairo delegation, presided as toastmaster.

Capt. Fowler made a most entertaining speech, in which he said among other things:

"Our meeting together this evening is one of the agreeable results of the sympathy established between the two cities on the occasion of our recent trip to Huntington."

"Whatever has a tendency to make two cities forget those things in which they differ and to remember those only in which they have a common interest, is a benefit to them both. The development of the lower Ohio river has a common interest for both of us. Whatever is the success of one is the success of the other. Although living with one another for commercial prestige, yet we work for the common good of our country. The peaceful and profitable interchange of commerce shall bind Paducah and Cairo together with bonds of steel, which neither a baseball, nor a football, nor even a basketball engagement shall ever be able to snap asunder."

"Mr. Toastmaster, Paducah pays her tribute to Cairo on this occasion and congratulates her upon her well-earned success."

The Cairo Bulletin says of the remainder of the banquet:
"A very pleasing feature of the evening, occurred at that completion of the speech-making, when Capt. Saunders Fowler, of Paducah, presented to Chairman Parsons a handsome silver service on behalf of the Paducah delegation, as a token of their appreciation of the treatment received at the hands of Mr. Parsons and the Cairo delegates, on their trip to Huntington."

"Capt. Saunders Fowler made a very neat speech in which he assured his hearers that Paducah was heartily in favor of Cairo and deeply interested in our welfare."

"Mr. Parsons was thoroughly surprised by the presentation, but managed to make a short speech thanking Capt. Fowler and the Paducah people for their kindness."

"The service was a handsome and expensive one. On the sides of the pitcher are engraved the names of the Paducah and the Cairo delegations."

BOTH POWERS

Ask Uncle Sam to Name Officer For Inquiry.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, and Sir Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador, called at the state department today and jointly extended to the United States an invitation to name a high ranking officer of the United States navy on the international commission that is to investigate the Dogger bank incident. The names of Admiral Dewey and Rear Admiral Chadwick are being considered in this connection.

TWELVE MEN

Believed to Have Been Killed by Caves-in in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—A sewer caved in at Kings Highway and Arsenal street today, burying a gang of twelve laborers. It is believed that twelve men were killed. Two dead bodies have been taken out by firemen.

LARGE CROWDS AT ALL THE CHURCHES

The Methodist Preachers Began New Year.

Large Crowd at the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church Yesterday.

NEWS OF OTHER CHURCHES

The churches yesterday were all well attended. The home pastors were in their pulpits and the usual services were held.

The Methodist churches began their new conference year yesterday. There was only one change in the personnel of these churches, a new minister, Rev. P. H. Field, coming to the Third street church. The Rev. Dr. Newell, of Broadway, and Rev. W. W. Armstrong, of Trimble street, return for their third and second years respectively. They are both earnest preachers and capable men, and are very popular here. The Rev. P. H. Field, of Third street, is quite a vigorous preacher and is a brother of Messrs. Louis and Smith Fields, of Fulton, formerly living here.

A large congregation was present last night at the Cumberland Presbyterian church to hear the Rev. George O. Bachman's lecture, "An Evening With the Missionaries—John G. Paton." It was one of the finest sermons in this series of lectures that he is delivering. It was illustrated with a number of stereoscopic views that were most interesting and showed the transformation in the savage lives where Paton labored.

Rev. David O. Wright, rector of Grace Episcopal church, delivered the first of his four Advent sermons yesterday morning. It was on "Christ's First Coming" and was very fine. It will be followed by "Christ's Second Coming," "Heaven" and "Hell," and it will be a most helpful series. The Rev. Mr. Wright is a very scholarly, earnest minister and is proving himself a force in his church.

A very large congregation greeted the Rev. T. J. Newell yesterday morning at the Broadway Methodist church, testifying to the pleasure of this people at his return for his third year among them. His sermon was an especially strong and patriotic one on "Why and for What Should Man Be Grateful to God."

He stressed many reasons why the American nation should be thankful and read President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation, which he said deserved to be read and preserved by every American, that it was worthy of Mr. Roosevelt and of this great nation. There were three additions to this church by letter.

Yesterday was Advent Sunday and was observed by the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church, Grace Episcopal church and the German churches with services and sermons appropriate to the season.

Rebbs David Alexander will return tonight from Toledo, O., where he was last week relative to the call to take charge of the Jewish Temple.

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION.

Miss Leona Wilkins, cashier at the New City laundry for the past thirteen months, resigned today to accept that of bookkeeper for the Hensig wholesale whiskey house, on South Third street.

A YOUNG MOTHER ROASTED INFANT

It Was Found in Dying Condition in Ash Barrel.

Prominent Politician Killed in New Mexico—Illinois Barten—der Killed.

A HOMICIDE IN TEXAS

New York, Nov. 28.—According to the police, Ida Englehardt, a young woman under arrest in Paterson, N. J., has confessed that she roasted her infant before a furnace fire until it had been fatally burned.

The young woman was employed by Messrs T. Laforce in Paterson. Yesterday Mr. Laforce found the infant in an ash barrel. The child was alive, but parts of its body were badly burned, and the little one died in a hospital.

Killed an Old Man.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 28.—The body of T. D. Lee, of Boston, killed in a saloon brawl, is still in the undertaking establishment. Definite dissection have been received from his widow, who resides at Roxbury, Mass. Will Williams, who struck the blow which caused the death of Lee, was given a brief examining trial and released an $2,000 bond. Lee had been in Texas only a short time and was making his first trip to Houston. When he and Williams were disputing, Lee drew a short knife and was told to put it up, which he did. Shortly afterwards Williams hit Lee, who was 65 years old and of small build, and the falling man's skull was crushed against the hard concrete floor. Williams is a powerful young man of means.

Shot Through Window.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 28.—News reached here of the assassination of Col. R. Francisco Chaves, probably the best known republican politician in New Mexico, at Pinos Wells, Torrence county. Col. Chaves was the guest of a friend and while they were eating supper a shot was fired through a window and Chaves fell from his chair dead.

Cut Two Men Up.

Crowley, La., Nov. 28.—News has reached this city of a serious cutting affair that occurred near Eunace. F. M. Flourie and E. A. Blance who reside at New Iberia, were attacked with a long knives by two Frenchmen named Savole and Richards of Eunace. Flourie was terribly slashed across the body a number of times by Savole and his recovery is very doubtful. Richards was severely cut but will recover. The cutting was the result of a fight at a country dance.

Shot a Bartender.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 28.—Frank Holyroos, a bartender, was fatally shot in a desperate fight with three hold-up men.

NOT IDENTIFIED

DEAD MAN BELIEVED BY JURY TO BE TOM COOK.

This morning at 9 o'clock Acting Coroner Jesse Young held an inquest over the remains of the man killed near Stiles Friday afternoon by the fast Louisville passenger train.

The jury decided the man's name was Thomas or Tom Cook, of Paragould, Ark., and that he came to his death by being struck by an I. C. passenger train, No. 102, on the afternoon of last Friday while he was seated on the track.

The verdict did not determine whose fault and the remains will be buried today. It is not known whether the men has relatives or not, but an attempt will be made by the undertaker, Mr. Pool, to communicate with them before burying the remains.

A company of state militia has been sent to Zeigler, Ill., to guard Joseph Leiter's coal mines, the sheriff and deputy marshals being unable to control the situation.

RAILROAD CAMP NOT UNSANITARY

I. C. Railroad Officials Investigated Reports.

The New Changes in Time Card Went Into Effect Yesterday.

OTHER RAILROAD NOTES

Every few days employees of the Bates-Regers Construction Co., which is putting in the piers at Tennessee river for the new I. C. bridge, come to the city and get intoxicated and circulate damaging reports relative to the sanitary condition of the construction company camp, and several I. C. officials this morning in justice to the company stated that such reports were without foundation and that the camp was as sanitary as possible to be.

"I often eat breakfast and dinner at the camp and I get just as good dinner and as well served as at the local hotels," an official stated this morning. "The reports that the camp is unsanitary is erroneous and such reports are generally started by men who have been discharged from the employ of the company. I think reports of such character should be ignored, as an inspection of the camp will fully warrant."

The construction company, by the way, is making excellent headway with the pier work and will have the piers finished by the first of the year, it is thought. After this comes the iron laying, and this will require something like three months. It is estimated. The work is being watched closely by the I. C. higher officials who pay a visit to the site every three or four weeks to keep constantly in touch with the situation.

Yesterday at noon the changes scheduled on the I. C. were made and the trains all arrived and left without delay except train No. 102, the noon passenger train from Memphis. It arrived very late on account of bad connections, but now that the time card changes are understood and known by other roads, the connection will be made and no more delays experienced.

Mr. L. Neil, chief dispatcher of the Paducah district of the I. C., left this morning for Central City on an inspection of the district to become thoroughly acquainted with the present condition of the road. The business is increasing with great rapidity and the dispatchers are working hard keeping blockades from forming and getting the trains over the district as rapidly as possible.

Mr. R. E. Roach, of the Frisco system, has accepted a position in the local I. C. shops as foreman of a pit gang in the machine shops. He succeeds Mr. F. H. Flannigan, who was promoted to Mr. George Schroeder's place. Schroeder being promoted to assistant general foreman to succeed George Duckett, made general foreman at Memphis. Mr. Flannigan's place had been vacant since the changes which were made several weeks ago.

Mr. F. H. Flannigan, assistant foreman in the local I. C. machine shops, will shortly organize a bowling club among the machinists, with which he hopes to win the championship of the city.

Mr. Dick Ashbrook is setting up a bowling alley and Flannigan, who is an enthusiast on baseball and bowling and such sports, is an expert bowler and fond of the sport. He says he has four other men in the shops who are experts also, and will form a club to challenge any club in the city. It is expected there will be plenty of clubs to play and bowling will become as popular a sport here as football and basketball.

The inspectors of the I. C. who recently passed through Paducah on an inspection of the road to Louisville, have made up the percentage of trackage and gave the first prize to the Chicago division, as foretold in the Sun shortly after the inspection.

The second prize goes to the Louisville division, on section No. 1, the first out of Louisville, which is in charge of Jerry Sharp, who was beaten by a mere fraction of one per cent.

FRIENDS ALARMED OVER LONG ABSENCE

Has Chas Mason Been Hurt or Foully Dealt With?

Went to Chicago and Has Not Been Heard From for Several Days.

WAS DUE HOME SUNDAY WEEK

The family and friends of Mr. Charles Mason, the popular young coal dealer, are very much alarmed over his unexplained absence from the city, and fear that he has met with foul play.

Mr. Mason left Paducah two weeks ago last Thursday for Chicago on business, and intended to return Sunday a week ago. While in Chicago he wrote to his family, but suddenly his letters stopped, and in a few days his relatives became alarmed, and began telegraphing to the house in Chicago with which he had business to transact.

They reported that he had been there and left for home, via St. Louis. The family then telegraphed friends in St. Louis on whom Mr. Mason would undoubtedly have called, and received word back that he had not been seen there.

Needless to say his family and friends are very anxious about him. It is understood that not a word has been heard from him for over a week, but a member of the family this morning stated that they had heard from him within a week, but declined to say when.

Mr. Mason is a young man of good, steady habits, his business is in good shape, and it is believed has been injured or killed somewhere in St. Louis or possibly before he left Chicago.

In fact, unless the young man suddenly became ill, and has been unable to write or notify his family, no other solution is offered for his failure to return or communicate with his people.

Mr. Mason is one of the most substantial business men in Paducah, and has been in the coal business for many years, first being connected with the St. Bernard company, later going into business for himself on West Jefferson street.

GOOD MOVE.

Laws Proposed to Make Football a Felony.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—State legislation forbidding playing of football in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin is being urged by James F. Rowley, of Chicago, whose son, Jas. F. Rowley, Jr., died from injuries received in a game November 5.

Parents of the sons who have been killed on the season just closed have been asked to co-operate with him. Rowley has consulted members of the state legislature and has been promised that a bill prohibiting the playing of football will be one of the first introduced at the next session of the legislature, which meets at Springfield January 4.

for the first prize. The No. 1 section, Louisville division, had secured first prize for the past four years.

Mr. Joe Walker, foreman of the local I. C. round-house, has returned from St. Louis, where he had been attending the fair.

It has been reported about the shops that Walker was made the victim of a "confidence man" and relieved of his diamond stud, about $25 in cash and his watch, but Mr. Walker wears them all and says that the report must have been started by some one as a joke. His fellow workmen claim it was reported in the St. Louis papers, but Mr. Walker says if it was it certainly was another Joe Walker, and not himself.

Mr. G. F. Fields, of the local I. C. wrecking crew, has recovered after a two weeks' illness, and was on duty this morning in the woodworking shops.

Messrs. John McGuire, Joe and Fred Walker, Frank Clark and Frank Lenhard, of the local I. C., have returned from St. Louis, after attending the fair.

Mr. Roy Christian, fireman on No. 102, the fast Louisville flyer, is attending the fair in St. Louis.

Kentucky Veterinarians Organized
With F. T. Eisenman President.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 28.—The Kentucky Veterinary Medical association was organized at the Galt
House with twenty charter members,
among whom are the leading specialists in this line in this state. The objects of the new body are to effect
a co-operative spirit in the profession and to secure legislation which it is thought is needed to protect the health of the people of Kentucky
from the tuberculosis among cows

and also from glanders among horses.

Officers were elected as follows:
Dr. F. T. Eisenman, Louisville, president; Dr. N. M. Leach, Lexington,
vice president; Dr. John E. Gray, Bowling Green, second vice president; Dr. D. A. Platt, Lexington, secretary; executive committee, Drs.
L. M. Land, M. A. Purdy, J. H. Jameson.

The next meeting will be held the last Tuesday in December in Lexington.

An interesting feature of the meeting last night was the election to honorary membership of President
Theodore Roosevelt, Gov. J. C. W.

Beckham and Mayor Charles F.

Granger.

Thomas Bracken, charged with complicity in the murder of Samuel Weakley, a non-union molder, was given a preliminary hearing in Cincinnati, and held to the grand jury without bail. Edward Trainer was placed under $5,000 bond.

The movement started in Cleveland, O., soon after the unveiling of the Kossuth monument in September, 1902, to erect a monument to George Washington, has taken root in Hungary and has been recognized by the government.

LONG LIFE ENDS

Mrs. Susan Bennett Lived Nearly a Century.

Her Father Fought in the Revolution
—Leaves Many Relatives.

Mrs. Susan Stringer Bennett, age
95, died at her home in Livingston county, six miles from Smithland, Saturday night from the infirmities of old age.

She was born in Georgia and her father, Leonard Stringer, fought in the revolutionary war.

She resided in Nashville, Tenn.,
prior to coming to Kentucky in 1820,
when ten years of age, and her husband, Alfred Bennett, died seventeen years ago.

She left three children, Mrs. Serena
Walker, of near Benton, Ky., aged 61; Mrs. Amanda Moore, of near Princeton, aged 67, and Royland Bennett, of Livingston county, aged 64.

She lived with two grandsons,
whom she had reared, Zed Bennett, of Smithland, superintendent of the county schools, and Bryant Bennett.
She was also grandmother of W. R.
Jones, T. A. Jones and Frank Bennett, of Bridge street, Paducah.

The funeral took place yesterday,
burial at a cemetery near Mrs. Bennett's home, where her father and other members of the family are buried.
The funeral services were at the Friendship Baptist church, of which she had been a member 64 years.

CHILD DIED

SON OF DEPUTY JAILER RU-DOLPH SUGGUMBED TO BURNS.

Landon Glenn Rudolph, the three-year old son of Deputy Jailer Harry Rudolph, who was fatally burned
Saturday morning by his clothes
catching fire from a toy lantern, died Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock after having lived nearly twenty-four hours
after the accident.

Little hope was entertained for recovery from the start, as the child had inhaled the flames. The body was burned from the hips up, all the hair
being burned nearly to the scalp.

The body was taken to New Hope cemetery this morning at 8:30 o'clock.
The funeral was held at 10:30.

LODGE OF SORROW

EFFORT TO HAVE PROMINENT ELK PARTICIPATE HERE.

Mr. Rodney C. Davis left last evening for St. Louis and will return tomorrow. While there he will call on Mr. James Young, of the Viola Allen company, and attempt to have him
participate in the Elks' memorial service at the Kentucky theater next Sunday afternoon. Mr. Young is a prominent Elk and always takes part in the annual Lodge of Sorrow where-ever he is. The Viola Allen company, however, which is here next Monday,
plays up about Chicago the latter part of the week, and it is doubtful if
Mr. Young could get here by Sunday afternoon. It is hoped, however, to be able to get him.

WAGON FACTORY

POSSIBLY THE GENTLEMEN
WOULD BRING IT TO PADUCAH.

Dr. J. H. Hickman, formerly president of the Owensboro Wagon Company, and Messrs. J. W. McCulloch, F.
T. Gunther, C. W. Bransford and R.
S. Hughes, prominent business men of Owensboro, Ky., are thinking of organizing a $200,000 wagon works, and it is possible that Paducah, by a little exertion, could land the concern.

Some of them were formerly owners of the Owensboro Wagon Works,
but sold out and are now contemplating organizing a new company and have not decided on a location. Nothing yet has been done, and probably will not be until spring.

The Towns Next Year Must Play
Sunday Ball.

The K. I. T. Receives Another Offer
of Free Balls for Season.

The Vincennes Capital in a special
from Cairo says:

"You can say for the Cairo baseball company that before we will be in a league with non-Sunday playing ball towns, such as Hopkinsville, Clarksville and Henderson, Cairo will grow alfalfa on her ball grounds,"
said Secretary T. J. Baker of the K. I.
T. league.

"And you may add," he continued, "that Cairo will have absolutely nothing to do with a league
to which President Thompson has any interest. This is final and decided," said Mr. Farnbaker, "and is the sentiment of the officers. For the sake of harmony I went to some of the officers and advised, or rather suggested, that all differences be set aside and everybody get together again, but they most emphatically said no; so that settles it. Cairo wants Paducah and Vincennes in the league and all the other towns must be Sunday ball towns, but no more of President Thompson."

During a recent visit to Chicago
and St. Louis, Secretary M. J. Farn-baker of the K. I. T. league visited the sporting goods houses of Spalding Bros. The sporting goods dealers were very much interested in the prospects of the "Kitty" league for the coming season and stated that they would extend the same courtesies to the league through Mr. Farn-baker as they did last season, viz.
furnishing free of cost all balls used in K. I. T. league games.

The money saved last year on balls
furnished by the Spalding company was several hundred dollars, and every one interested in baseball will be pleased to learn of the contribution for next season secured through
Mr. Farnbaker.

CONSTIPATION.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation.
Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A.
Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes
Feb. 12, 1902: "Having tried Herbine,
I find it a fine medicine for constipation."

We Want the Accounts of Women

We would like to see every woman have a bank account here. Besides the fact that it would acquaint them with the commoner forms of business, it would also be the best way to take care of money. Any woman may obtain a Home Deposit Safe to keep at home, by depositing one dollar. This Metal Safe will enable you to save the small sums which usually slip away unnoticed, but which if saved would amount to a considerable sum. You will be astonished at the way your account will grow if you will save systematically and regularly, even in small amounts.

Ten cents saved every day will amount to, not counting Sundays, sixty cents a week; two dollars and fifty cents a month; and together with 4 per cent. interest, considerably over thirty dollars a year.

The House of Weille & Son

B. Weille, Sr., deceased, and M. Livingston, deceased, in 1860, at Smithland, Ky., founded the establishment now known as B. Weille & Son.

Under the name of M. Livingston & Co. the firm did business in the Livingston county town for three years, removing then to this city.

They were in business in Paducah for several years when Mr. Livingston retired and Mr. Weille changed the name to "The Star Clothing House." It was then located at Second (then Market) and Broadway.

In 1884 Mr. Charles Weille, Mr. Weille's son, was taken into the firm and in 1888 the store was moved to 209 Broadway and the name changed to "The Famous." In 1893 the present structure at 409-411 Broadway was erected. In May, 1904, the erection of the handsome new addition adjoining was begun.

Real Master of the Pacific.

There is much ingenious speculation in Europe concerning the future mastery of the Pacific ocean. The London Spectator thinks that if Japan should organize Chinese resources she would unquestionably become the dominating power of the North Pacific. Others say that if Russia should win this war that position would be hers.It is curious that these able thinkers cannot perceive the obvious fact that the question they are discussing is not a question at all, declares the Philadelphia Post.The predominating power of the Pacific not only will be, but is, the United States. The United States is the only great power except Japan,
and the only white power without exception, that actually fronts on the Pacific. Though Russia's territory is continuous, her thickly-settled Pacific coast is so far from her centres of population that it is practically a remote colony. All the European powers that have territory on the Pacific at all are represented by distant dependencies.The United States has a longer
and better coast line on the Pacific
than any other country in the world.
Russia would gladly exchange all
Eastern Siberia and Manchuria for a single harbor like the bay of San Francisco or Puget Sound. We hold
part of the isthmus of Panama near
the equator and own the whole eastern shore of the ocean, from the Mexican line to the Arctic, with a single
little break in British Columbia. In the Philippines we have an outpost more extensive than the entire United Kingdom. This country
is the only power that has large pos-
sessions on both sides of the Pacific,
with convenient stopping places between.The United States is the only
country that ever built a battleship
on the Pacific. Three of the finest battleships in the American navy
were built at Pacific yards, and we
have at least three establishments
on the western coast capable of
building others like them.The United States is the only
power that has primary naval bases
of the first rank on the Pacific, Hong-
kong, Port Arthur, and Vladivostok
are only secondary bases, dependent
upon supplies from distant sources.
Japan has primary bases that are inthe way of becoming first class, but none of them has yet developed its independence to the point of turning
out a battleship of its own.The United States is the only power that can command a future water
gateway between the Atlantic and
the Pacific. When the Panama Canal
is finished, it, and it alone, will be able to concentrate its whole naval force at will in either ocean. Russia
has been worsted at sea by an enemy
of one-third her nominal strength
because the various parts of her navy have been scattered beyond supporting distance. The United States
can send a fleet by way of the Panama Canal from New York to the Philippines without having to ask
any foreign power for the favor of a pound of coal or a night's shelter on
the way.Finally, and most important of all,
the position of the United States on
the Pacific insures it that industrial
and commercial predominance with-
out which military and naval power
is only a hollow shell. There are more miles of railroad in the Pacific
States and Territories of the Union
alone than there are in the Pacific
possessions of all the other countries
of the world combined. The trade of Russia with the countries of the Pacific must be carried on by one single track railway; that of all the
other European nations by ocean
voyages half around the world. The United States alone is on the spot.

THE SIEGE OF PORT ARTHUR.

Port Arthur hasn't fallen, and it
begins to look as if it will not fall.
All war dispatches must be taken
with a grain of salt. The Japanese
have for months been claiming that
the end was near at Port Arthur, but
the last report indicates that Port Arthur is in no imminent danger of
falling, and if it falls it must be before the Baltic fleet arrives on the scene. The Japanese have either
been deceived or deceiving. The siege
at Port Arthur virtually began June 27th, and has consequently lasted only
five months.As a writer in Harper's Weekly
says: "The siege of Vicksburg was considerably more protracted. If we count from the beginning of the earlier and unsuccessful operations; while
Port Arthur, to which Grant laid
siege on June 9, 1864, was not evacuated until April 2, 1865. The defense
of Sebastopol was maintained for
eleven months, and the defenders
did not capitulate, but withdrew by a way which had been kept open. The famous and successful defense of Gibraltar by the English garrison against
the combined fleets and armies of France and Spain lasted about three years. The casualties suffered by the Japanese before Port Arthur have not
been made known officially, but they
almost certainly fall short of the losses incurred by the French and English before Sebastopol, which were
computed at 60,000. Gen. Stoessel
has declared that his soldiers will fight to the last man. Even should
the vaunt be fulfilled, they will do no
better than the Greeks did at Thermopylae, or than the Texans did at
the Alamo."It is consequently seen that the
siege of Port Arthur, in comparison
with other sieges of history, may still
be in its infancy.The Colorado gubernatorial mud-
dle now has the center of the stage.
It's dollars to doughnuts that if the
democratic candidate is not elected
the courts will not permit him to serve. In Kentucky it was different
few years ago. The courts assisted
in the steal of the state by the democrat.The baseball outlook for next
season is becoming more promising,
and we are glad to see the absurd and
unpleasantlike enmity towards our
old friend and neighbor, Cairo, vanishing. There was never any reason
for it, and any baseball fan with half
sense ought to be able to see thatThe United States has a longer

THE SIEGE OF PORT ARTHUR.

Port Arthur hasn't fallen, and it
begins to look as if it will not fall.
All war dispatches must be taken
with a grain of salt. The Japanese
have for months been claiming that
the end was near at Port Arthur, but
the last report indicates that Port Arthur is in no imminent danger of
falling, and if it falls it must be before the Baltic fleet arrives on the scene. The Japanese have either
been deceived or deceiving. The siege
at Port Arthur virtually began June 27th, and has consequently lasted only
five months.As a writer in Harper's Weekly
says: "The siege of Vicksburg was
considerably more protracted. If we
count from the beginning of the earlier and unsuccessful operations; while
Port Arthur, to which Grant laid
siege on June 9, 1864, was not evacuated until April 2, 1865. The defense
of Sebastopol was maintained for
eleven months, and the defenders
did not capitulate, but withdrew by a
way which had been kept open. The
famous and successful defense of Gibraltar by the English garrison against
the combined fleets and armies of France and Spain lasted about three years. The casualties suffered by the Japanese before Port Arthur have not
been made known officially, but they
almost certainly fall short of the losses incurred by the French and English before Sebastopol, which were
computed at 60,000. Gen. Stoessel
has declared that his soldiers will
fight to the last man. Even should
the vaunt be fulfilled, they will do no
better than the Greeks did at Thermopylae, or than the Texans did at
the Alamo."It is consequently seen that the
siege of Port Arthur, in comparison
with other sieges of history, may still
be in its infancy.The Colorado gubernatorial mud-
dle now has the center of the stage.
It's dollars to doughnuts that if the
democratic candidate is not elected
the courts will not permit him to serve. In Kentucky it was different
few years ago. The courts assisted
in the steal of the state by the democrat.The baseball outlook for next
season is becoming more promising,
and we are glad to see the absurd and
unpleasantlike enmity towards our
old friend and neighbor, Cairo, vanishing. There was never any reason
for it, and any baseball fan with half
sense ought to be able to see thatThe United States has a longer
and better coast line on the Pacific
than any other country in the world.
Russia would gladly exchange all
Eastern Siberia and Manchuria for a
single harbor like the bay of San Francisco or Puget Sound. We hold
part of the isthmus of Panama near
the equator and own the whole eastern shore of the ocean, from the Mexican line to the Arctic, with a single
little break in British Columbia. In the Philippines we have an
outpost more extensive than the entire United Kingdom. This country
is the only power that has large pos-
sessions on both sides of the Pacific,
with convenient stopping places between.The United States is the only
country that ever built a battleship
on the Pacific. Three of the finest
battleships in the American navy
were built at Pacific yards, and we
have at least three establishments
on the western coast capable of
building others like them.The United States is the only
power that has primary naval bases
of the first rank on the Pacific, Hong-
kong, Port Arthur, and Vladivostok
are only secondary bases, dependent
upon supplies from distant sources.
Japan has primary bases that are inthe way of becoming first class, but
none of them has yet developed its
independence to the point of turning
out a battleship of its own.The United States is the only power that can command a future water
gateway between the Atlantic and
the Pacific. When the Panama Canal
is finished, it, and it alone, will be
able to concentrate its whole naval
force at will in either ocean. Russia
has been worsted at sea by an enemy
of one-third her nominal strength
because the various parts of her navy have been scattered beyond supporting distance. The United States
can send a fleet by way of the Panama Canal from New York to the Philippines without having to ask
any foreign power for the favor of a
pound of coal or a night's shelter on
the way.Finally, and most important of all,
the position of the United States on
the Pacific insures it that industrial
and commercial predominance with-
out which military and naval power
is only a hollow shell. There are more miles of railroad in the Pacific
States and Territories of the Union
alone than there are in the Pacific
possessions of all the other countries
of the world combined. The trade of Russia with the countries of the Pacific must be carried on by one single track railway; that of all the
other European nations by ocean
voyages half around the world. The United States alone is on the spot.

—Nora and Hattie Ladd were taken to Louisville yesterday by Capt. Joe Wood and placed in the home of the Good Shepherd.
—National Organizer F. Hohn, of Ohio, spoke to a fair-sized crowd Saturday evening at the city hall on socialism.

Col. Bud Dale, of the New Richmond, sent his immense prize apple the other day to his son, Mr. L. Dale, in Texas. The express charges were forty-five cents, the most ever paid out of Paducah on one apple.

Nothing further has been heard from Dr. Cash, the optician who disappeared from here two months ago and wrote from Pueblo, Colo., a short time ago, saying he was coming back. He drove to Evansville from a town up in Indiana, and is supposed to be driving through from Evansville.

Dr. J. H. Brooks is today preparing to move into his new quarters in Trueheart building.

Grace church Guild Bazaar will be at Mrs. Girard's next Saturday. No article over 50 cents.

The Independent Telephone company is now taking its wires down on Broadway.

A new horse belonging to the American Express company ran away this morning shortly before noon, dashing through the alley back of the office and not stopping until he came to a fence in the alley back of L. H. Ogilvie & Co. No one was hurt but a lot of trucks were spilled.

OPENING TONIGHT

R. Weille and Son Ready to Welcome Their Friends.

The Handsome Store Beautifully Decorated for the Occasion.

Everything is in readiness at Weille's for their formal opening tonight of their handsome new addition. The final touches were put to the decorations this morning and the callers this evening will see some novel and beautiful things in the way of decorations. The hour for the opening is set at 7:30 and the Messrs. Weille want all their friends to come down to see them.

WEILLE'S OPENING.

O. L. Brunson & Co., the florists, have orders from several of Weille's admirers to furnish for each of them a fine floral offering for their opening tonight, among the number are:

The Washington Shirt Co., of New York.
Gos Stern New York.
H. Heinemann, New York.
Freeman Bros., New York.
E. J. Paxton, of Paducah.

Social Notes and About People.

To Live in Memphis.

The news of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Hunsford Clarke for Memphis, Tenn., which they will make their home after the first of the year, will be received with general regret by their many friends here. They will be greatly missed in Paducah's social life, where they have occupied a prominent place since first coming here to live. Mrs. Clarke is one of the leading members of the Magazine club, and the pleasant Clarke home on West Jefferson street is a very popular one.

It will be agreeable news to Miss Mary Lee Clarke's host of friends that she will remain here, the guest of Mrs. Hattie Noble at "Anfield" this winter, instead of accompanying her brother and family to Memphis.

Henderson Marriage.

The Henderson Gleaner says: "Cards of invitation received last night read as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. James Ewing Hankin request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Susan Daniel, to Mr. George F. Henderson, on the evening of Wednesday, the seventh of December, at nine o'clock at Saint Paul's church, Henderson, Kentucky."

Mr. James Hankin is a former Paducahan, the son of Mrs. Sophie Hankin, of this city, and is well known here. His daughter, Miss Susan Hankin, is very attractive and popular socially.

Birthday Party.

Miss Jeannette Rittoff will entertain this evening at her home, 1027 South Fourth street in honor of her tenth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCreery have returned from a visit to the world's fair.

Mrs. E. Kasper, of Kansas City, who has been visiting her father, Mr. F. Hummel, here, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dullais, of St. John, Wash., have returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Dullais.

Sheriff Lee Potter and family have returned from the fair.

Mr. Richard Ashbrook has gone to St. Louis.

Mr. L. S. DuBois and wife have gone to the world's fair.

Masters Willie Rudy, Sammie Hughes and Guy Martin have returned from Staunton, Va., their military school having been partially destroyed by fire.

Mr. Charles Hart and family have returned from a visit in the country.

Mr. William Bradley has gone to St. Louis to accompany home his mother, Mrs. Lucy Bradley, who is en route back from visiting her son, Mr. Given Bradley, of Gainesville, Texas.

Mr. Howard Heazlett, wife and child, of New Albany, Ind., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morris.

Mrs. T. J. Lowe has arrived from Clinton to visit her daughter, Mrs. James Nagel.

L. F. Bennett and wife returned to Paducah Saturday morning after a visit to the former's brother, Doc Bennett, of Louisville, who had his leg broken a short time ago.—Mayfield Messenger.

Mr. Quincy R. Love, of Cleburne, Texas, a former Smithland boy who is now doing well in the hotel business in the Lone Star State, is in the city today en route to Smithland on a visit. He is well known in Paducah.

Attorney Frank Lums has returned from Louisville where he had been on business.

Dr. Charles Lightfoot is expected back from Louisville the first of the month.

Miss Fannie Pendley has returned from Nashville, where she had gone to visit her sister who is attending school in that city.

Mr. William Hill and bride, who were married in Bowling Green a few days ago, have arrived in Paducah to make their home and are at Mrs. W. Hadden's, on North Third street.

Mr. Grey Woudson has returned from a trip to St. Louis.

Mr. Denny P. Smith, of Cadiz, is in the city today on business.

Mr. W. A. Davis and wife, of Chicago, are in the city on a visit.

Chicago, are in the city on a visit. Mr. Davis is now one of the most prominent lumber men in the country, and has an immense business in Chicago, with branch offices in other places.

Captain Mike Williams returned from St. Louis this morning after attending the fair.

Miss Rose May Welkert left today for Louisville and Cincinnati to visit friends.

Messrs. Fred and Wm. Beyer have returned from the fair where they saw the president.

Mr. Charles McClain, wife and child, of Owensboro, are visiting in the city.

Mrs. Charles Rogers and Miss Anne Church, of Owensboro, who have been visiting in the city, returned home at noon today.

Mr. Wm. Parham returned from Mayfield at noon.

Mr. A. D. McKinney, of Memphis, formerly connected with the Memphis Morning News and other Memphis papers, is in the city on business. He will be here a day or two.

SAD NEWS

Mr. H. C. Bronnough Just Alive in Newton, Ill.

Has Typhoid Pneumonia—Relatives Left at Noon Today.

The many friends in Paducah of Mr. H. C. Bronnough will learn with sorrow that he is in a critical condition at Newton, Ill., and was today when last heard from believed to be dying. Mr. Bronnough was a few days ago prostrated by an attack of typhoid pneumonia, and having been in rather poor health for several months, he became rapidly worse, and so alarming did his condition become that his wife was summoned last Friday, leaving at noon.

A message received last night stated that he was barely alive, and Mr. Mrs. J. E. English, brother-in-law and sister-in-law of the patient, and Dr. J. D. Robertson, left at noon today for Newton.

Mr. Bronnough is one of the most popular young men in Paducah, and for several years was in the vinegar business here, subsequently having a sporting goods establishment on Broadway. For the past year or more has been a representative of the Winchester Arms Co., and traveled about to all the gun club shoots to introduce the company's goods. His many friends will hope for more favorable reports.

HOME FOR BISHOP

Episcopalians of Kentucky to Provide Handsome Residence.

It Will Cost $25,000 or More and Be Located at Louisville.

A residence to cost between $20,000 and $30,000 will be purchased by the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky for the bishop. This decision was reached at a meeting held in Louisville at which there were present the delegates to the diocesan council and a large number of communicants.

Every indication pointed to a liberal subscription list, and a fine sum was promised before adjournment. The subscriptions will begin at once and, it is thought, will be completed within the next three or four days.

As soon as this is done committees, to be appointed, will take up the matter of a location and the erection of the Episcopal residence will be pushed through.

Since the death of Bishop Dudley the members of the diocese have been aware that there would be urgent need for a dwelling for the bishop as soon as one was elected.

Nothing has been heard from Dr. Woodcock, of Detroit who was recently elected bishop, and it is not considered that he will reply definitely before the middle of this week.

THE CARNIVAL

Association Will at Once Begin Work.

Many Companies Want to Furnish the Attractions Here.

It is intended to hold a meeting of the Paducah Carnival association this evening at Hotel Lagomarsino to begin work of outlining next year's carnival. The indications now are that there will be no scarcity of attractions. The Mundy company has just written Director-General Lagomarsino that the coming season they will have the biggest and best attractions they have ever handed together, and will have the handsomest fronts, and their own light reservoirs, etc.

In addition the Gaskill company, the Ferar Brothers company, and the Parker, four of the biggest in the country, are all anxious to come to Paducah, and whichever one the association gets will insure the public the best attractions.

Several new and novel features are contemplated for the coming season, one of which is to be an automobile race out Broadway from First to Ninth street. By that time the street will be reconstructed as far out as Ninth and this will afford a level course. Races will be stretched along the street on both sides all the way out to keep back the crowd, and a prize will be awarded the winner.

There will be two big parades, and it is expected that the carnival will be Paducah's biggest. By the first of the year preparations will be in active progress. Secretary R. C. Davis is now in St. Louis, and while there will look after some carnival business. All carnivals are expected to do better the coming year because the world's fair will be over.

Theatrical Notes

Mr. Harry Beresford in "Our New Man" played to good business Saturday at The Kentucky, and many think this play is the best he has yet presented in Paducah. His company, as is always the case, is well balanced and gives him excellent support.

Theater goes will tonight at Henderson, Ky., select a new name for "The English," now managed by F. R. Hallam. Harry Beresford will play there, and a coupon is furnished with every ticket, the name receiving the most votes to be the name of the theater hereafter.

Mr. G. H. Atkinson, press agent for A. G. Field, has been making the acquaintance of the press boys today. He was formerly dramatic critic of the Columbus, O. Dispatch.

Part of the VanDyke-Eaton company was in the city last night en route to one of the neighboring towns to play until Wednesday night, when they open an engagement here.

A special feature with "A Hot Old Time," which is at The Kentucky tomorrow, will be Mile. Ant, acknowledged to be the most accomplished acrobatic artist in the world. The beautiful Ani has thrilled thousands in the leading theaters of Europe. The enthusiasm which greets the return of "A Hot Old Time" in every city proves beyond doubt that it is what the public want.

MASONIC NOTICE

Paducah Royal Arch Chapter No. 30, R. A. M., will meet in special convocation Tuesday afternoon, November 28th, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of conferring the mark-master, post-master and most excellent-master degrees on a class of nine. At 6:30 a. m. a banquet will be served in the dining hall of the Fraternity and the August degree of Royal Arch Masons will be conferred at 7:30 p. m. A full attendance is requested and visiting companions are invited.

TORMENTING RHEUMATISM

Columbus, Ohio, May 20, 1903.
Six years ago I had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I was laid up in bed for six months, and the doctors I had did me no good. They changed medicines every week and nothing they prescribed seemed to help me. Finally I began the use of S. S. S. My knee and elbow joints were swollen terribly, and at one time my joints were so swollen and painful that I could not close them when opened. I was so bad that I could not move knee or foot. I was getting discouraged, you may be sure, when I began S. S. S., but as I saw it was helping me I continued it, and today I am a sound well man and have never had a return of the disease. S. S. S. purified my blood and cured me of this severe case of rheumatism after everything else had failed. I have recommended it to others with good results.
R. H. CHAPMAN.
1355 Mt. Vernon Ave.

The poisonous acids that produce the inflammation and pain are absorbed into the blood and rheumatism can never be conquered till these are neutralized and filtered out of the blood and system. S. S. S. goes directly into the circulation and attacks the disease itself. It purifies and restores the blood to a healthy, vigorous condition. It contains no potent, alkali or other strong minerals, but is guaranteed entirely vegetable. Write us and our physicians will advise with out any charge whatever. Our book on Rheumatism sent free.

SENATOR GEORGE GOES SOUTH
Senator George, of Wingo, was in the city Saturday morning mixing among his friends. He will leave Monday morning by way of New Orleans to spend about thirty days in the extreme southern points in Texas on a trip for pleasure and business combined. The senator expects to spend most of the winter in Texas, Louisiana and Florida.—Mayfield Messenger.

CURED CONSUMPTION.
Mrs. W. H. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

GOES TO NASHVILLE.
Mr. J. D. Wolfe, of the Southern Express Company, has been transferred to Nashville, and left to accept the new position. Mr. Wolfe has been cashier in the local office and the transfer to the larger city comes as a promotion. He will be succeeded there by Mr. C. Blessing, of Evansville.

NO CUT

Has Yet Come to the I. C. Forces.

While It May Arrive Soon It Is Not Now Expected.

From every indication there will be no cut made in the working forces of the local I. C. shop this winter, the work being very heavy and the hours having been cut rather steep. "This is the first time in many years the road has failed to cut down the forces during the winter months," an official stated this morning. "I think it is the intention of the company to work the present force all through the winter, as we have abundance of work and need all the engines and cars we can get. The cut in hours was made on account of the darkness coming so soon, but the forces were not touched. It may be, however, that the order to make a cut will come before December 1st, but after the road has waited this long, it is hardly probable that it will order the cut."

The machinists have been expecting a cut and also have the woodworkers, and are greatly pleased that the cut has not been made. During the summer when business was so slack many men were laid off to curtail expenses, and it appears that the road is attempting to show its employees that it means the best by them and when possible to give steady work, will do so.

DOWN IN DEFEAT

WENT THE PADUCAH BOYS—THREE HURT.

Saturday a football team made up of young boys from Paducah went to Metropolis in the gasoline heat Alert and played a game with the High school team of Metropolis and was defeated by a score of 22 to 0.

The local team called itself the High school team, but as only two members of the High school team were in the lineup the High school team does not want the credit of defeat. The school team alleges it won all its games.

In the first half of the game at Metropolis Saturday three players were injured. These are Felix St. John, Bob Wilkins and Gus Katterjohn. Three had ankles wrenched and the St. John boy was the worst injured of all.

This will probably end the football season for the local team unless some particular match game is gotten up between the senior team and the teams of other cities. It is understood Murray has a team which wants to play, but nothing definite can be learned relative to their desires.

EYE BURNED

ACID INJURED JOHN VICKERY. AN I. C. TINNER.

Mr. John Vickery, a tinner employed in the local I. C. tin shops, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon late while putting a roof on a caboose.

He was soldering the roof when his merrito acid was accidentally shaken and started to fall off the roof. Vickery made a grab for the can and in catching it splashed the acid into his right eye.

The eye was badly burned but fortunately the sight will not be permanently impaired. Vickery was treated at the local I. C. hospital and because of the accident will be unable to work for several days. The inside of the eyelid near the corner was badly burned.

NO CIRCUS

AL FIELD WILL NOT BUY SELLS BROS. AGGREGATION.

G. H. Atkinson, formerly dramatic critic on the Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch, but now press agent for the Al G. Field Greater Minstrels, was in the city today. He was asked concerning the rumor that Mr. Field will own the Forepaugh Sells circus next season. He said there was no truth in the rumor. However he stated that this popular circus will be owned and operated by a Columbus stock company and Mr. Field will own some stock in the enterprise.

Mr. Atkinson stated that Mr. Field will finance a new minstrel show next season. It will be given over to Tommy Donnelly, black faced comedian of the Field minstrels, and Joe Hatfield, advance man for the same organization. Messrs. Donnelly and Hatfield have been associated with Mr. Field for nearly twenty years, and this is in appreciation of their long and faithful service that Mr. Field expects to launch them on the road with a show of their own. Bookings will be confined to the New England states and the southwest. Both gentlemen are well known here.

CHILD BETTER

LITTLE GLADYS WAGGENER RETURNS TO PRINCETON.

Mrs. W. C. Waggener and daughter, Gladys, the latter who was operated on more than a week ago, left at noon for Princeton, the little girl much better and the operation a success as far as can be seen.

The little girl had typhoid pneumonia and it settled in her ears, destroying the hearing. An abscess formed and an operation had to be performed back of both ears and since that time portions of diseased bone had to be removed from time to time, and it is thought this last operation will effect a complete cure, but little hope to give out for the child recovering her hearing.

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Paducah Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Paducah citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Paducah by Doan's Kidney Pills.

T. W. Woodson, of 40 South Ninth street, painter, employed with C. D. Warren, 408 1/2 Broadway, says: "Every painter is more or less troubled with his kidneys on account of the nature of his work. We all know what causes it, but how to remove it is a mystery. I tried lots of medicine and different schemes, but until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s drug store and took a course of the treatment I met with very indifferent success. They cured the trouble."

THE YOUNG LECTURER

(Original)

The young professor was lecturing to a mixed class of men and women. His subject was mental philosophy, and he was treating of the emotions. "Love," he said, "is perhaps the emotion which is best calculated to illustrate the actual shallowness of our emotional natures. A man sees a woman whom he desires to possess. The faculty of imagination makes her a purgation in his eyes. Constant dwelling on one subject produces mania. If he marries the ceremony is scarcely performed before reality nips the place so recently occupied by emotion, and the woman appears to him as her real self, with the particular faults belonging to that particular woman. If he does not marry he is in time cured of his mania, and the object that has excited it becomes commonplace to him. But he is not immune. The love emotion may again and again be excited, the object in each case being a different woman."

When the class was dismissed the students passed out of the lecture room, and if any of them discredited from his views the lecturer was not made aware of the fact. His remarks upon love produced no marked effect on the young men of his class, but among the girls there was a babel of tongues indignantly denying the lecturer's position, most of them averring that the "coxoomb" had been fitted. One girl, and only one, stood by him, a modest feminine creature who would never be suspected of harboring such heretical sentiments. But as she had not cast off the awkwardness of her girlhood and answered to the common-place name of Euphemia Smith the other girls declared that she agreed with the young professor because it was not probable that she would ever have a lover.

Ten years passed. The man who used his "chair" simply to gain a livelihood while he studied a profession had become an eminent attorney. He had been recently introduced to a lady who had taken possession of his heart. He had forgotten his lectures on mental philosophy and on this particular occasion was declaring his passion. Nevertheless he had formed analytical habits and must needs fall into them.

"There is nothing," he said, "that so strongly points to a divinity in our natures as love. Never have I been so impressed with this as since my heart has been beating in unison with yours. Selfishness dies in the presence of love as a noxious vapor is dispelled by the sun. It is my delight to serve you. I would even die for you. Every dash of your beautiful eyes, every note in your melodious voice, every one of your many adorable traits, impels me to cast myself at your feet and beg you to permit me to forego all selfish pleasure for the one supreme joy of being your slave."

"I regret," said the lady coolly, "that I cannot agree with you as to the nature of love. Love is perhaps the emotion best calculated to illustrate the actual shallowness of our emotional natures."

"How can you say that? You would not did you love as I love. My passion for you is not an emotion; it is akin to the nature of the great Creator, a spark from heaven, a blessed privilege beside which the pleasures, the ambitions, the successes of life, dwindle into nothingness."

"The faculty of the imagination," she replied in an argumentative tone, "makes me a purgation in your eyes. Constant dwelling on one subject has produced mania. After marriage reality would usurp the place of emotion, and I would appear to you with the particular faults that belong to me individually."

"I would become every day, every hour, more and more devoted. If I am not blessed by being permitted to spend my life in loving you the bright prospects before me will wither like burned parchment."

"On the contrary, you will soon be cured of your mania, and I shall become commonplace."

"I can never love another."

"You will not be immune. The emotion may again and again be excited, the object in each case being a different woman."

Something in the lady's eye—the sparkle of a smile—served to kindle the flame of memory. It rushed upon the lover that the object of his love had been quoting his own words.

"You are a graduate of —?"

"I am."

"And attended my lectures?"

"I did."

"Strange," he said, "that I should not have remembered you. There was a girl—a Miss Smith—in the class of '92, I think, but she did not resemble you."

"Papa used to say that I looked like a colt when I was in my teens."

There was a short silence, during which the man endeavored to recover from his confusion.

"What rot I must have talked in those days! I was infatuated with realism and materialism and all that. I wonder that the college authorities appointed a boy of twenty-six to lecture on abstract subjects. But how came you to remember so much twaddle?"

"There was a special canon."

She hung her head and toyed with a turquoise ring on her finger the shade of her blue eyes. The man plucked up courage.

"Name it, sweetheart."

"I loved you."

He clasped her in his arms, and there was a moment—moments, long moments—of ecstatic silence. Then they cooed and cooed till the clock struck the first hour of the morning.

TEN YEARS APART

Are Dry Spells, Says An Old-Timer.

The present extremely dry weather is exceptional in its long continuance, but especially in its extending so far towards Christmas, says the Owensboro Messenger. The fact that railroads all over the state are hauling water in trainloads to their tanks is unprecedented. However, a local physician said to a Messenger reporter yesterday that he remembered well just twenty years ago, that was in 1884, the L. and N. at many points between Henderson and Nashville hauled great tank-cars of water to all its watering places, and also hauled it for stock purposes, as the ponds and creeks along the road were almost dry and there was no water for stock even within driving distance. Where a good watering place existed, stock was driven several miles to it.

Several of the older citizens were found who say that for years back that these excessively dry years have invariably come ten years apart. They remember in 1834 and again in 1844 the summer and falls were extremely dry and the rivers low, and they recollect the very dry years of 1894, 1884 and 1874. The last year named was followed by the greatest August flood that ever visited the Ohio valley in times of authentic record. The river then overflowed its banks and ruined crops of all kinds for miles on either side of the stream.

Cardigan

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

Copyright, 1901, by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

"What I am striving for," said Sir William to the men and again, "is to see that these Indians on our frontiers shall take neither one side nor the other, but remain passive while the storm rages. To work openly for this is not possible. If it were possible to work openly, and if Quilder should die, I would send such a message to my Lord Dunmore of Virginia as would make his bloodless ears burn. And they may burn yet."

You are to know, Michael, that Lord Dunmore, governor of Virginia, is in my opinion, at the bottom of this. He is the man, foreseeing the future, as do all thinking men, has sent the detailed troops to pick a quarrel with my Indians, knowing that he is making a future ally for England. It is vile! It is a monstrous thing! It is not loyalty! It is treason!"

This outburst left me stunned. Save for Sir William, I knew not where now to anchor my faith, this king already in those few days had become to my youthful mind a distant, wavering shadow, no longer the rock to which loyal hearts must cling unhesitatingly.

Now the dark pages turning in the book of fate were flying faster than young eyes could mark. First to the Hall came Joseph Brant, called Thayendanege, brother to Mistress Molly, and embraced us all, eagerly admiring my uniform with an Indian's frank native, crossing Silver Head's curly pate and praising her beauty, and fondling Bess and Peter with Albany sweets till I forbade them to approach for their stickiness did disgust me.

Now, though Sir William had hitherto treated Brant in all things, I noticed he spoke not to Brant of Quilder's mission, though Mr. Butler had already, seated a mystery in the doorway, and often asked why Quilder had never spoken his message, for he was not aware that both message and answer had been delivered long ago.

That Joseph there were three council fires at the lower castle, which Brant and Mr. Butler attended in company with a certain little Seneca chief called Red Jacket, a dilly, dilly, and a pretty creature, who was perhaps a great orator, but all the world knew him for a glutton and a coward.

The house had now been thronged with Indians for a week. Eleven hundred Mohawks, Cayugas, Senecas, Oneidas and a few Tuscaroras lay encamped around us, holding long talks with Red Jacket, Mr. Butler and Brant, but Sir William attended to none, and very soon I discovered the reason.

For suddenly Sir John Johnson arrived at the Hall, and with him Colonel Daniel Claus and his lady from Albany, which almost advents began a stir and bustle among us that increased as day by day new guests arrived at our house. Johnson Hall, Colonel John Johnson's house and the house of Colonel John Butler were now crowded to overflow with guests. Sachems and chiefs of the Oneidas arrived, officers from the Royal American and from the three regiments of militia which Tryon county maintained, officers from my own troop of irregular horse quartered at Albany, and whom I now met for the first time, and finally, in prodigious state, came our Governor Tryon from New York, with a troop of horse which for beauty of clothing and impudence of deportment I had never seen equaled.

The house rang with laughter and the thump of glasses from morning till night. On the stairs there swept a continuous rush and rustle of ladies' petticoats like the wind blowing through corn. Ladies filled the house. There were maids and lackeys and footmen and chair bearers and slaves thronging porch and hallway; new faces everywhere, new uniforms, new gowns, new phrases, new dishes at table, new airs at the spindle, new songs.

And now, piling confusion on confusion, comes from the south my Lord Dunmore from Virginia, satin coated, foppish, all powder and frill and scent ed like a French lady. But, oh, the gallant company he brought to Johnson Hall—those courtly Virginians, with their graceful and velvet voices, with their low bows and noiseless movements, elegant as panthers and proud as helms to kingdoms all!

Some lodged at the Inns in town, some with us, some with Sir John Johnson and others with Colonel Butler. But they all thronged our house day and night till I was like to suffocate with the perfumes and scented robes of our white guests and the wild animal roars of the Indians.

As for Silver Head, I saw her but twice, and then she disappeared entirely. I was sorry for her, believing she had been cooped within the limits of nursery and play room, but I had my pity for her pain, as it turned out.

It came about in this way: I had been relieved of duties at the blockhouse to receive reports of Quilder's sickness, as it was now believed certain that the Cayuga must die, and I had been ordered to dress in my new uniform to accompany Sir William to a review of our honest Tryon county militia, now assembling at Johnstown and Schoenectady.

Standing in the portico, with the fresh wind in my face, I perceived Sir

William, attended by Sir John and Colonel Claus, inspecting the guard at the north blockhouse, and I made haste to join them. In the meadows below, the brown and yellow uniforms of Colonel Butler's militia regiment spread out like furrows of autumn leaven.

I paid my respects to Colonel Claus, who honored me with a careless nod

Sachems and chiefs of the Oneidas arrived.

and passed before me to greet Colonel John Butler and his son, Captain Walter Butler.

The Butlers were of a stripe. There was the black, fixed eye of the night bird in father and son, the deathly grimace to do duty as a smile, the mechanical observance of polite company, the compliments, the bows, the curtsies of gentlemen, but back of it something lifeless, something slow and terrifying in voice and step—what I know what I mean! Yet often and often it came to me that inside their bodies something was lying dead—their souls perhaps.

I stood behind Sir William, drawing on my gloves of kidskin, observing the officers as they came, up to join the staff and stand and watch the two remaining regiments marching into the meadow below.

They had built a gayly painted wooden pavilion in the meadow for the ladies and Governor Tryon and my Lord Dunmore, and now came the coaches and carriages laden with beauty and riches and tricked out in ribbons.

Hobnob as the grooms were bringing up our mounts, and I slowly looked for Warwick, doubting lest he be portoured to some horseless guest. But there the dear fellow stood, ears pointed straight at me and snorting for the coarseness of my hand on his muzzle.

"Mount, gentlemen!" said Sir William briskly, and up into our saddles we poised, while the trumpet blew from the blockhouse and down in the meadow the long painted drums bellowed out the salute.

Drudgery

And Worry Sap Woman's Nervous Vitality.

There is nothing more nerve wrecking than household duties and the care of children. The drudgery, worry and petty annoyances of the day, and broken rest at night soon exhausts her vitality and she becomes nervous, irritable and restless. If allowed to continue, it ends in Sick, Nervous Headaches, Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles, and those terrible periodical bearing-down pains, which come from nervous exhaustion.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a never-failing remedy for such cases. It builds up and soothes the nerves, and brings the sweet, restful sleep, so much needed.

No other medicine is as pleasant or so curative in every case of female weakness, nervousness or general worn-out condition.

Try it at our risk. Cost refunded if first bottle fails to benefit you.

"I had been sick several years with indigestion and nervous prostration, which kept me almost constantly under a physician's care, and while I had been treated by four doctors, I received only temporary relief. I was very weak and nervous, and unable to attend to my household duties. After reading about Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, I decided to give it a trial. The first few doses brought restful sleep at night, and an appetite for food. Continuing the treatment, I rapidly improved, and now I am well and able to do all my work."

INTERESTING, IF TRUE.

You Can Try It For Yourself and Prove It.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard-boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated, place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water, heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body), and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach, and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essence, aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingle with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Dieting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind, because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world-wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cents for full-sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

AFTER MANY YEARS

EIGHT MEN MET THANKSGIVING DINNER TOGETHER.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 28.—Thirty years ago at Columbus, Ky., eight young men, one of whom was Harry T. Robinson, a popular merchant of this city, ate Thanksgiving dinner together, and then had their photographs taken in a group. Thirty years have passed, all of the old friends, who have led strictly sober, moral lives, are living, and last night they held a reunion and enjoyed an elegant banquet at the Gast hotel at Columbus.

The old cronies who met so happily after the lapse of more than a quarter of a century, are H. T. Robinson, of this city; George M. Sanders and Henry Gale, of Columbus; Dan S. Green, of Chattanooga; Tom McConell, of Arlington; Will Thompson, of Memphis; George Anderson, of Carle county, Ky.; and James Brewer, of Indian Territory.

MURRAY NEXT

TEACHERS ADJOURN AFTER AN INTERESTING MEETING.

The First District Teachers' Association before closing its annual convention here Saturday decided to meet at Murray next year.

The officers elected are as follows: J. O. Brown, of Murray, president; W. H. Sugg, of Paducah, vice-president, and Joseph S. Ragdale, of Lone Oak, secretary.

The association passed the usual resolutions of thanks to all those who helped make the meeting a success.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Gauge today reads four-tenths and standing. Weather is clear and cool, and there has been no change in the stage since last Monday. By referring to the record of last year it is found that the gauge then for November 28th was four feet, instead of four inches, and for several days the latter part of last November the river rose a foot a day.

The City of Charleston arrived from Elizabethtown, Ill., yesterday.

The Lulu Warren is due from Tennessee river tomorrow and returns Wednesday night.

Capt. Jack McCaffery has returned from Davenport, Ia. His newly chartered boat, the Kilt Carson, is now at Cairo waiting for more water to come to Paducah.

These are dull, desolate days down about the river front. For many months now the river men have had practically nothing to do. This affects pilots, captains, engineers, clerks and scores of others, with all those with whom they are accustomed to trade.

The sinking of the Joe Say and the tragic fate of Engineer Walter Bobb was the only topic discussed along the river front at Vicksburg Tuesday. Since the loss of the Providence at Ion landing nearly four years ago nothing approaching the disaster has occurred in these waters. The final tug is reported to be a total loss.

The Pittsburgh Post says: "The Monongahela and Allegheny rivers continue to fall at upper points, and at many places the water is at a lower point than it has been for years. At three stations on the Allegheny river the water is below the gauge minimum, and at two points on the upper Monongahela the same condition exists. At Weston the water is 2.4 feet below the gauge minimum."

The Pittsburgh Dispatch says: "At the regular semi-monthly meeting of Harbor 25 Saturday morning the members of the Association of Masters and Pilots will be asked to take up with their representatives in congress the question of establishing marine postoffices on the inland rivers. It is alleged that under present methods mail matter for river men is taken to the boat stores, wharves or general offices of the shipping lines, and there dumped in indiscriminately into a box to be left until some persons from the boat calls for it. Many mixups result."

The Pittsburgh Gazette says: "Some idea of what Pittsburgh loses by the water in the Ohio river may be gained from a knowledge that there is over 100 tons of freight in different business houses in the downtown portion of the city awaiting water enough to carry it down the river. The Ohio river valley absolutely depends on the river for its commercial life. The Ohio river railroad is the only rail route from Wheeling to Cairo, except a few miles here and there, where some other road parallels it on one side or other of the great river. But the Ohio river road is the only through line. Its rates are so high as to practically preclude the carrying of certain classes of freight. So, until the rain comes or the government makes the Ohio navigable all the year round, Pittsburgh shippers of certain lines of goods must sit idle and wait."

What People Say of the Shoffner Sure Cure. PADUCAH, Ky., March 5, 1903. To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles; and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.
